Jordan Tate stars as Diane Blanchard in Doctor Stevens

NEW YORK, USUA, June 11, 2021 /EINPresswire.com / -- After publishing novel "White Gold" , Jordan Tate stars in short thriller film "Doctor Stevens" alongside a mystery actor.

Tate's followers have been speculating on the identity of the actor who obviously is a professional artist giving a terrifying performance of this presence whose impending coming is feared throughout the short film, just like it is by the character played by Jordan Tate completely inhabiting her role in a very Dario Argento and Hitchcock's inspired style.

DOCTOR STEVENS debuts on June 11, 2021 on Jordan Tate's youtube channel.

and on various short film websites like itsashort.com

An accomplished author too, Jordan Tate also recently released novel "WHITE GOLD", an adventure story combining her love for animals and passion for writing, the story of a couple fighting the ivory trade around the world, and mainly of a woman struggling to find the truth about the assassination of her father, an animal right activist.

The book is available on amazon and various libraries.

No doubt audiences and readers will have a lot to discover about Jordan's universe during their summer time.
